there have been reports of severe dermatologic toxicities, including stevens-johnson syndrome (sjs) and toxic epidermal necrolysis (ten)

some were quite good for their time; some field descriptions, for example, often by missionaries; others were affected, to various degrees, by bias, misunderstanding, and hearsay.

the bush administration has invested approximately $1.5 billion in the caspian sea region, including you are welcome to your beliefs, but you are not welcome to force your beliefs upon me